Dear Skaneateles-Area Businesses, Residents and Friends:

We are delighted to present the 32nd annual edition of the phone directory! We are a rare and unique community that still has an active phone book in 2024. Many of our residents treasure our phone book and the comforts of being able to look up a phone number the “good old-fashioned way.” While the phone book is primarily used for looking up personal or business phone numbers, it also contains area maps and historical tidbits. This year’s cover photograph is a John D. Barrow painting to celebrate his 200th birthday.

We are grateful for the support of our advertisers and encourage you to use the Yellow Pages to “buy local.” Many thanks to Lindsey Babbles, who oversaw the phone book project, and to those who assisted her: Lucinda Abbott-Smith, Hilary Fenner, Geralyn Huba and the Skaneateles Historical Society Volunteers, Lori Milne, and Joan Thomsen.

Additional copies of the phone book can be picked up at the Chamber office, 22 Jordan St., Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and weekends from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. during July, August, and December. The Chamber office is also where you can buy gift certificates, good for all Chamber-member businesses.

Enjoy this convenient resource and visit our website, skaneateles.com, for more information on area businesses, upcoming events, and more.

And, if there are ways, we can make this directory more useful to you, please let us know—we’d love to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Nancy Ranieri

Chamber Board President

DID YOU KNOW...

The first frame house ever built in Skaneateles is still standing, newly occupied by The Savage Homestead, 61 E Genesee St. Built in 1796, it originally faced North, toward the main road at the time. The rear portion of the house is the oldest, with the original walk-in fireplace and hearth on the basement level, which was the first floor at the time. Genesee St. was later raised to its present level.

DID YOU KNOW...

During World War II, the children of Skaneateles did their part toward the war effort. They picked milkweed pods, filled orange mesh onion bags given to them by Mr. Randall, the Shop teacher in the high school, who paid the children 10 to 20 cents a bag. The milkweed pods contained silken strands called milkweed floss which replaced kapok used in life vests and could keep a sailor afloat for about 10 hours.

By 1932 the Skaneateles Boat and Canoe Company had built and sold 5082 canoes, rowboats and sailboats which were shipped throughout North and South America and Europe. Their shop was on the site of the current Byrne Dairy building. That building later housed Paul Zechman's Bowling Center and Restaurant before he started Cedar House Lanes on Rte 20 west of the village.

Dickens Christmas in Skaneateles
Weekends Thanksgiving thru Christmas

DID YOU KNOW...

Joe Whiting is responsible for this story, which can be found in entirety on the Skan-El-lus Facebook page: In 1965 across from the Bird's Nest Motel on Rte 20 there was a Taste Freeze ice cream stand, run by local character Donnie Delavan. He put an ancient circus tent out back and the 'Skaneateles Dance Tent' was born complete with tongue and groove flooring installed by paying the workers with a keg of beer, the workers being Andy and Henry Hawley, Bert Wait and Joe Whiting. The floor got finished and so did the keg, which had more hills and valleys than Rte 20, but it was a floor. See the next "Did You Know" for the rest of the story.

DID YOU KNOW...

Here's the rest of Joe Whiting's story about the Taste Freeze across from the Bird's Nest Motel. Joe Whiting's band 'The Ridgewoods' played in the Skaneateles Dance Tent behind the Taste Freeze, creating a lot of complaints from the Bird's Nest about the noise from the tent. Eventually the Tuckers, who owned the Bird's Nest, were so irritated they started their own drive-in right next door and named it Skan-Ellus. It became an instant success, the Taste Freeze folded and now you know how Skan-Ellus was born.

The Aristocats and Dogs building at 62 E. Genesee (which used to be next door to our "World Famous" Colonial Theater in Legg Hall) has seen lots of businesses over the years. It was once the Village Pharmacy and after that Lindorf's Restaurant, which later became the Comet Restaurant in the 1940s and then the Dutch Kitchen until 1961. The last restaurant to occupy the space was the Harbor House, which folded in 1965, but not before a lot of great music by the Soda Ash Six wafted out over the lake.

Where CVS and Kinney are now, used to be the coal yard for the Skaneateles Railroad. The coal bin was elevated and the steam engine wasn't powerful enough to push the coal car up the ramp to reach the bin, so an extra rail car was added, enabling the engine to have less distance to push the coal car up the ramp. This was contributed by Frazier Hunt, whose grandfather owned the coal yard.

One chapter of Norm Hunt's garage on Hannum Street occurred when it was owned by Bentley & Thomas in 1931 and sold Chrysler cars. To attract business during the Great Depression they sponsored a blindfolded drive through Skaneateles, to prove that their cars were so fool-proof that they could be driven blindfolded!

Byrne Dairy has evolved from the 1930s, delivering milk to local families in Syracuse in 8 yellow and brown horse-drawn wagons to processing a million pounds of milk daily and shipping dairy products to 37 states, Puerto Rico and Mexico. "Molly" was the last horse to pull a wagon, retiring in 1952 to the disappointment of thousands of neighborhood children.

In 1865 when Robert E Lee surrendered at the end of the Civil War, there was one black person present at Appomattox Courthouse, teenager Dempsey Bryant, who came to live in Skaneateles and later fathered Hank Bryant. Bryant, beloved black pianist and lifelong, highly respected Skaneateles resident, has a jazz festival at the Sherwood Inn named in his honor. Thanks to Charlie Major for the story, recorded in his Swamp to the Glenside column 1999.

2020 is not the 1st time a dreaded epidemic hit our country: The Spanish Flu Epidemic of 1918 lasted more than 2 years, killed 675,000 Americans and 50-100 million people worldwide! Up to 12,000 cases were reported in Syracuse, about 900 died and 58 people died during one 24 hour period. All public gathering places were ordered closed, including schools, churches, theaters and businesses. Face masks were required, bodies piled up in makeshift morgues and in Skaneateles the Packwood House (now Sherwood Inn) was used as a temporary hospital.

The Evans Family's Pine Grove Dairy on Onondaga St. Road was in business for 60 years, 1917-1967. Milk was bottled on the farm and delivered door-to-door, starting with a wagon (or a sleigh in winter) and a horse that knew the route and stopped automatically at each location.

Pine Grove Dairy made history in 1938 during National Air Mail Week, which was celebrating 20 years of U.S. air mail. All letters posted from Skaneateles on May 19, 1938 would take a special Air Mail Flight to Syracuse from the open fields behind the Pine Grove Dairy. The flight took 6 minutes and the special air mail stamp cost 6 cents.

McKeever's Powell House Hotel and Tavern, opened in 1884 at 6 Jordan Street, where Bijou Hair Salon is now, was the scene of much gaiety and song over the years, with our beloved Hank Bryant at the piano singing the old songs in the 1940s and beyond. It eventually became the Town House Tavern, opened in 1961, a hot spot for food and fun for a number of years.
